Government Notices.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In Council at Government Buildings, the 16th day of July, A.D. 1880.

PRESENT:

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the Attorney-General, the Minister of Finance, the Provincial Secretary.

Whereas by Section 17 of the "Judicature Act, 1879," it is inter alia enacted that the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time, by Order or Orders in Council, make rules, to be styled "Rules of Court," for carrying the said Act into effect and for regulating the practice and procedure in the Supreme Court of British Columbia;

It is hereby ordered and declared by the Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, in pursuance of the power so vested in him by the said "Judicature Act, 1879," that on and after the twentieth day of July, A.D. 1880, the Rules and Orders in force in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England on the 1st day of November, 1877, so far as the same are applicable to this Province, shall be the Rules and Orders in force in the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

The Orders in Court and Orders in Council now in force regulating the Fees and Costs of Counsel, Attorneys, Solicitors, Sheriffs, Jurors, Witnesses, and any other matters mentioned therein, shall, when practicable, apply to proceedings under the above Act; and when the same are not applicable, the Tariff in force in England on the said first day of November, 1877, shall apply.

T. B. HUMPHREYS,
Provincial Secretary and C. E. C.

CIRCULAR.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE,
OTTAWA, 28th May, 1880.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you herewith a printed Circular Despatch, from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and its enclosure, respecting the right of a Colonial Governor when absent from his Colony to receive salutes and to use the Governor's flag.

I have to request that you will cause publicity to be given thereto in the Province of British Columbia.

I have, &c.,

To His Honour

The Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

CIRCULAR.

DOWNING STREET,
19th April, 1880.

SIR,—In consequence of the question referred to in my Circular Despatch of the 28th of September last, as having been raised as to the right of a Colonial Governor when absent from his Colony to receive salutes, and to use the Governor's flag, I have been in further communication with the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and I have now the honour to transmit to you, for your information, a copy of a Circular which their Lordships have issued to the Fleet as to the circumstances in which a Governor's or High Commissioner's flag may be hoisted when he is embarked on board a vessel of war on business connected with his Government or High Commission.

I have, etc.,
(Signed) M. E. HICKS BEACH.

FLEET CIRCULAR No. 4.

M.

ADMIRALTY, 8th March, 1880.

(Flags of Colonial Governors, &c., afloat.)

Queen's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, page 19, Art. 74.

1. My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, are pleased to direct that whenever a requisition is received by any Officer in Command of one of Her Majesty's Ships for the embarkation or conveyance of a Governor, High Commissioner, Lieutenant-Governor, or Officer Administering the Government of a Colony, the Senior Officer present may direct the special Flag of such official personage to be hoisted at the foretop-gallant masthead of the ship in which he is embarked; provided that he, after consultation with and on requisition from that official, considers it for the benefit of the service about to be performed that such Flag should be hoisted, and provided that it is only hoisted or carried within the limits of his Government or High Commission in which he would be entitled to be saluted under Article 18, page 4, of the Queen's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, 1879.

2. If the Senior Officer considers it in any circumstances undesirable to hoist the Flag, he is to inform the Governor, High Commissioner, &c., of his reasons, and at once report the same to the Admiralty.

3. In the event of a Governor, High Commissioner, &c., of a Colony being detached on a Foreign Mission in his official capacity as Governor or High Commissioner, special instructions will be issued in each case as to the Flag which should be carried by a Man of War in which he may be embarked; in the absence of which the Senior Officer present is to exercise his discretion in consultation with the Official proceeding on the Mission.

By Command of their Lordships,
ROBERT HALL.

To all Commanders-in-Chief, Captains,
Commanders, and Commanding Officers of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels.

The Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia.

CIRCULAR.

DOWNING STREET,
22nd April, 1880.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an agreement between the Governments of Great Britain and Germany, for the mutual surrender of Merchant Seamen Deserters, together with a copy of the order of the Queen in Council of the 18th of March giving effect to the agreement.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient humble servant,
M. E. HICKS BEACH.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND GERMANY RELATIVE TO MERCHANT
SEAMEN DESERTERS.

Signed at London, November 5, 1879.

The Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Government of His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, being desirous, for the benefit of the commerce of the two countries, to facilitate the discovery, apprehension, and surrender of seamen who may desert from merchant vessels of either country, on the basis of a full and entire reciprocity, have agreed as follows:—

It is mutually agreed that if any seamen or apprentices, not being slaves, should desert from any ship belonging to a subject of either of the Contracting Parties, within any port in the territories or in the possessions or colonies of the other Contracting Party, the authorities of such port and territory, possession or colony, shall be bound to give every assistance in their power for the apprehension and sending on board of such deserters, on application to that effect being made to them by the Consul of the country to which the ship of the deserter may belong, or by the deputy or representative of the Consul.

It is understood that the preceding stipulations shall not apply to subjects of the country where the desertion shall take place.

Each of the two High Contracting Parties reserves to itself the right of terminating this Agreement at any time, on giving to the other a year's notice of its wish to that effect.

In witness whereof the Undersigned have signed the present Agreement, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at London in duplicate, the fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.) SALISBURY.
(L.S.) MUNSTER.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March, 1880.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the "Foreign Deserters Act," 1852, it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such Power when within Her Majesty's dominions shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities for recovering and apprehending seamen (not being German subjects) who desert from British merchant ships in the territories belonging to His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Germany will be given under an Agreement between the Governments of Great Britain and Germany signed at London on the 5th November, 1879:

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act," 1852, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette seamen, not being slaves, (and not being British subjects), who desert from merchant ships belonging to subjects of the Emperor of Germany within Her Majesty's dominions shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships; provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect.

And Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act," 1852, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is further pleased to order and declare that, upon and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, the Order in Council made, by virtue of the said Act, on the 16th day of October, 1852, and published in the London Gazette on the 26th day of October, 1852, so far as it relates to seamen who desert from merchant ships belonging to citizens of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen and Hamburg, and the Order in Council relating to seamen who desert from the merchant ships belonging to subjects of the King of Prussia, made by virtue of the said Act, on the 16th day of October, 1852, and published in the London Gazette on the 26th day of October, 1852, and the Order in Council relating to seamen who desert from the merchant ships belonging to subjects of the Grand Duke of Oldenburg, made, by virtue of the said Act, on the 13th day of June, 1853, and published in the London Gazette on the 14th day of June, 1853, and the Order in Council relating to seamen who desert from the merchant ships belonging to subjects of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, made, by virtue of the said Act, on the 9th day of March, 1854, and published in the London Gazette on the 10th day of March, 1854, and the Order in Council relating to seamen who desert from the merchant ships belonging to subjects of the King of Hanover, made, by virtue of the said Act, on the 8th day of June, 1854, and published in the London Gazette on the 13th day of June, 1854, shall be revoked, and the same are hereby revoked accordingly.

And the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. PEEL.

The substance of this Notice, as soon as it is received on board, is to be inserted in red ink on the Charts affected by it; and introduced into the margin, or otherwise in the page, of the Sailing Directions to which it relates. See Admiralty Instructions, Navigation and Pilotage, pp. 312 & 313.
